

[For the Ledger.]
To Miss A. S. . . . .
OF PROVIDENCE, N. C.

Why dost thou frown and look so cold,
Upon thy victim's humble state?
Canst thou be won, or bought with gold,
By those whom wealth styles grand and great?

Was it because thou found me poor,
That thou didst my entreaties shun?
Were I laden with golden ore,
Wouldst thou scorn me as thou hast done?

A nobler heart I know dost reign,
Within thy pure and peerless breast,
Than on that dreams in worldly gain,
To find a free and quiet rest.

Thy thoughts doth so above the throng,
That could delight in empty show;
Thy soul will never chant the song,
That creates mirth to end in woe.

If thou didst spurn me as the snake,
That leaves a poison in its breath—
If thou couldst view my heart-strings break,
And smile with joy at me in death—

I'd prize thee as the eagles prize
The eaglets of their tender love,
Thou flying far beyond the skies,
Dart watchful glances from above.

Cannot the soil of Lancaster,
Rear sons as generous and kind,
As Mecklenburg, York, or Chester,
Or any place you please to find?

Let history's unerring page,
Declare the true and stubborn fact,
That her brave sons at any age,
Shrank not with fear when called to act.

Pleasant Plain, L. D., 1852.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

GOOD LAND FOR SALE.

I WILL SELL MY PLANTATION on Beaver Creek, containing about 500 Acres, situated within a mile of the Village of Lancaster. There is about 200 acres of this place under a tolerable good fence, and nearly all bottom land, and well adapted to the culture of Corn, Wheat, and other Small grains, and equally good for Cotton (some say) with proper culture. It has advantages which cannot well be mentioned here, but which I can recount to, and which will be seen by any one who wishes to purchase, upon looking over it. Others can speak favorably of this tract of land to some of whom I take the liberty of referring, viz: Dr. Strait, Jno. W. Cooke, Esq., John Williams Esq., Dr. Wylie and J. H. Witherspoon, Esq.

I will also sell my land on Cedar Creek and Dry Creek I cultivate these lands, and they are the same upon which I have made Cotton for several years past; with what success the above gentlemen can speak. I have no objection to any of the above lands for want of productiveness, and it may be well supposed that I will ask a price corresponding with the present price of Good Land; but still, all will be made easy to the purchaser.
